

“The train, full of life, blasting through San Mateo is invigorating”

says Steve Fick, front and center, with local multi-generational roots. Steve is part of the Borel Family, a fixture in San Mateo since 1874. Steve is leading a veteran team, previously at Borel Bank, to carry on San Mateo’s banking history. Together with Adam Baughman, left, and Claudia Ferguson, right, they have been serving the San Mateo community for over 25 years. Presidio Bank is filled with pride that we will be joining these banking traditions. The doors will open in late 2014. We’ll meet you at the station!
